

679.2 Dispute resolution program — administration.

1. There is established in the office of prosecuting attorneys training coordinator of the department of justice a program for the establishment and support of locally organized dispute resolution centers which make informal dispute resolution procedures available. The executive director of the prosecuting attorneys training coordination council shall administer the program under the direction of the council.

2. The executive director, subject to approval by the council, may appoint an advisory committee to advise the executive director and the council on the administration of the dispute resolution program. If an advisory committee is appointed it shall consist of not more than seven members and shall include at least three representatives of existing dispute resolution centers. The committee shall meet at the call of the executive director. Members shall serve without compensation but are entitled to actual expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Payment shall be made from funds appropriated to the council for the administration of the dispute resolution program.
